

※この設問に答えはありません。状況を想像して自由に回答してください。

We live in an advanced country where we can freely eat food and satisfy our needs.

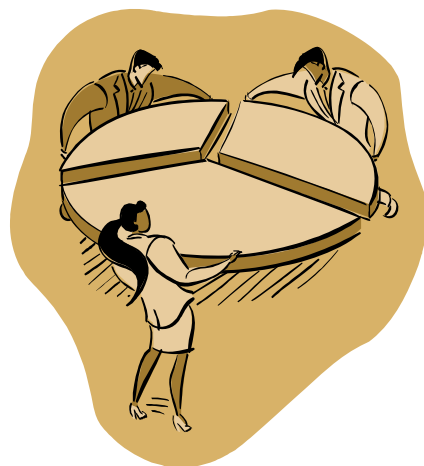

In Africa, for instance, there are a large number of people suffering from hunger and even dying of starvation.

What do you think of this issue?

What do you think we individuals should do?

Would you share the food with them even though you will not get enough food for yourself?

Why?

n